

Requirements of the Final Paper in CA499

- Your paper should be at least 4000 words long (this can range anywhere between 12-15 pages or more).
- The paper should have at least 10 cited resources within the paper. At least six (6) of these resources must be peer-reviewed library resources.
- Your paper must combine information from two different disciplines – preferably disciplines you’ve taken at least one class in during your college career.
- Your paper must be in APA format, using the 6th edition of the APA Publication Style Guide.
- All information drawn from external sources must be cited properly, both within the text of your essay and in a references page.

Paper Rubric

- 20% of the grade – Met criteria for the paper (length, resources, integrating disciplines, etc.)
- 20% of the grade – Met APA style requirements (formatting, citations, conventions, etc.)
- 10% of the grade – Adhered to grammar and mechanics
- 50% of the grade – Content

| Grading Criteria Assignments | Maximum Points |
|--|-----------------------|
| Meets or exceeds established assignment criteria | 20 |
| Meets APA style requirements | 20 |
| Content of the paper is well-reasoned, exploring concepts and theories addressed logically and completely, and factors in the needs and expectations of the reader | 50 |
| Uses proper mechanics, punctuation, sentence structure, grammar, and spelling | 10 |
| Total | 100 |